My dear Mr Garrison

When I left home in 1861 for my consulate at Cardiff, I gave to the Library of Yale College, New Haven a complete set of the Emancipator do do National Era
do do Christian Citizen
The Independent for 8 years, I think, and some other Anti-Slavery Papers

Understanding that you are writing a History of our great Anti-Slavery struggle, I have thought you might like to consult some of these.

When I was in London last year I had printed in one handsome small volume the Liberty Address of 20. 1844. 1844. 1844.

The first of the series
The second of the series
The third of the series
The fourth of the series
The fifth of the series
The sixth of the series
The seventh of the series
The eighth of the series
The ninth of the series
The tenth of the series
The eleventh of the series
The twelfth of the series
The thirteenth of the series
The fourteenth of the series
The fifteenth of the series
The sixteenth of the series
The seventeenth of the series
The eighteenth of the series
The nineteenth of the series
The twentieth of the series

my old college friend, Judge Chase of 1845 and my own of 1844, & when you were in London, at the time of the breakfast I ordered one to be sent to you, as I was on the Continent. Alas! that Judge Chase should so have fallen in the estimation of his best friends that were.

That you may be wisely guided in the preparation of your work is the hearty wish of yours very sincerely

Charles D. Cleveland

P.S.

The most prized compliment I ever had was from Charles Sumner, in 1857

"It is your noble speciality to have introduced Freedom & Humanity into the text-books of schools."

My dear Mother

I have just received your letter of the 11th and am very glad to hear from you and to hear that you are well

and that you are still in the same place

I am very glad to hear that you are well

and that you are still in the same place

and that you are still in the same place

and that you are still in the same place

and that you are still in the same place

and that you are still in the same place

and that you are still in the same place
